...supporting doctors serving their communities...

The AMA exists to:

- Promote and advance ethical behaviour by the medical profession and protect the integrity and independence of the doctor/patient relationship;
- Promote and advance public health
- Protect the academic, professional, and economic independence and the well being of medical practitioners; and
- Preserve and protect the political, legal and industrial interests of medical practitioners.

Member Benefits: Advice & Access

- Advice on the Privacy Act and its impact on medical practice
- Advice on the Health Records (Privacy and Access) Act and the fee schedule to the Act
- Advice on employing staff in medical practices, offering an accredited administrative staff training program
- Advice to employed staff in the private or public sectors and negotiation advice and representation for negotiating workplace agreements
- Advice on "informed financial consent" for private practices
- Advice and referral to other professional colleagues on matters of health and well-being
